CROWBAR, VEMOD AND GAEREA TO INFERNO 2023

American heavyweight sludge metal masters Crowbar, Norway's dark ethereal metal band Vemod and Portuguese black metal outfit Gaerea are confirmed for Inferno Metal Festival 2023.

CROWBAR

Crowbar is an American sludge metal band from New Orleans, Louisiana, characterized by their extremely slow, low-keyed, heavy and brooding songs that also contain fast hardcore punk passages. Crowbar is considered to be one of the most influential metal bands to come out of the New Orleans metal scene. Their slow, heavy, and brooding style of metal is known to be influential in the sludge metal, doom metal, and stoner metal genres. Crowbar got a great new album out in 2022 and we look forward to having them back at Inferno Metal Festival!

VEMOD

Vemod from Trondheim made quite an impact when their first, and still only, full length album "Venter På Stormene" was released in 2012. Combining such diverse influences as Ulver, Dead Can Dance, Brian Eno and Paysage d'Hiver, the three musicians pursue a unique musical and aesthetical approach, thus reaching a distinct expression and atmosphere at an early stage of their career. Vemod are now working on a sequel to "Venter På Stormene" and while we wait we are excited to confirm them for the Inferno Metal Festival 2023.

GAEREA

Portuguese atmospheric black metal band Gaerea was founded in 2016 and released their first EP the same year. The EP received many praises from the worldwide press. Two full-length albums have been released by now and the third one will be out this year on Season of Mist. This will be Gaerea's first time at the Inferno Metal Festival!
