GEHENNA

The Norwegian black metal band Gehenna started in 1993 in Stavanger. The band plays black metal, but has also included several elements of death metal on some of their more brutal albums. Many of their releases are considered classics in the early Norwegian black metal scene from the beginning of the 90s. The band has so far released seven full-length albums and two EPs. Their latest work is called "Unravel" and was released by Indie Recordings earlier this month.

HARABALL

Haraball is a Norwegian hardcore punk metal band full of energy and attitude. The group was founded in 2011 and is a result of members from the straight edge band Tiebreak joining forces with the drunken punk band Fairplay (later Fair Fuck). The band recently released "Sleep Tall" on Fysisk Format and the company itself regards Haraball as one of their most up and coming bands.

SULPHUR

Sulphur hails from Bergen and consists of members and ex-members of bands like Vulture Industries, Bourbon Flame, Deathcon, Aeternus, Gorgoroth and Enslaved. The band plays their own style of black metal blended with elements of death metal and avantgarde music. The band has released two albums where the last one is "Thorns in Existence" from 2009, which was released on Dark Essence Records.

SO MUCH FOR NOTHING

So Much For Nothing is the solo project of Erik Unsgaard from Sarkom. Last years the band released the debut album "Livsgnist" which received great reviews. Musically this is black metal of the depressive kind, and may remind you of something between Lifelover, Shining and Skitliv. Now it's time to take this project to the stage and So Much For Nothing will hold their debut concert at Inferno Kick Off 2014.
