SUFFOCATION

Founded back in 1988, SUFFOCATION used three years to devolve their unique sound and style of death metal, until the released of the EP "Human Waste" and their legendary debut album "Effigy of the Forgotten" in 1991. The band released several albums, that are considering as classics today, during the ninetens, before disbanding in 1998. SUFFOCATION reformed in 2002 and has since then steadily given out great records, and are now ready with their latest effort called "Pinnacle of Bedlam". Nevertheless, the band has not played in Norway since 2007 – and it's about time the legends return to the land of the midnight sun with some pure brutal death metal.
