TRISTANIA TO INFERNO METAL FESTIVAL 2014

Norwegian Gothic metal pioneers TRISTANIA are ready to play at INFERNO METAL FESTIVAL 2014! The band have been around since the mid-'90s and recently released their 7th studio album; "Darkest White". This will be a night with symphonic Gothic metal at its very best.

Earlier announced artists are DIMMU BORGIR, TULUS, SIGH, IMPIETY, BLACK WITCHERY, ORANSSI PAZUZU and FLESHGOD APOCALYPSE.

TRISTANIA

Tristania is one of the pioneers of the Gothic metal scene in Norway. Hailing from the west coast alongside bands like Theatre of Tragedy, The Sins of thy Beloved and Dismal Euphony, they created their own style blending together Gothic music with the heaviness of doom metal, symphonic elements, and with the contrast of using brutal growling and beautiful female vocal. Tristania has just released their newest masterpiece called "Darkest White", and are ready to enter the stage at Inferno Metal Festival for the second time.

Tristania's drummer Tarald Lie Jr. tells us:

We are really looking forward to this. It's a very special feeling to play for a packed Rockefeller, as it was last time. This will be our first concert in Oslo in almost four years, so I hope and think people will take the opportunity to see us.

What can the audience expect from a Tristania gig?

The audience can look forward to a 100% lit band with a solid new album in the baggage, which we are very proud of, and we are going to present some new songs as well as older material.

What are you looking forward to most on a personal level?

The Inferno atmosphere... and the moment when we walk off stage after playing the hell out of ourselves at the festival.
