KYLESA

American band Kylesa has captivated listeners with its heavy psychedelic sludge metal since 2001. However, in 2015, the band went on hiatus. Now, the band is back and will perform a selection of exclusive concerts in 2025 to celebrate their 25th anniversary, with Inferno Metal Festival hosting their only performance in Scandinavia in 2025. Kylesa, always led by the guitar-vocal duo Laura Pleasants and Phillip Cope, has been a key band in the Georgia metal scene, with their unique sound remaining as relevant as when they started almost 25 years ago.

THE BLACK DAHLIA MURDER

The Black Dahlia Murder is an American melodic death metal band founded in 2001. The band has achieved great success, with several albums making it onto the prestigious Billboard chart in the USA. Despite vocalist Trevor Strnad's passing in 2022, the band continued with guitarist Brian Eschbach on vocals. The band is set to release their brand new album, Servitude, in September, and it promises to be an outstanding record.

DØDHEIMSGARD

In the vibrant spirit of collaboration and artistic expression, DHG (Dødheimsgard) is set to deliver a memorable performance at the esteemed Inferno Festival during Easter 2025. This special show promises to be a remarkable fusion of avant-garde black metal and experimental soundscapes, showcasing DHG's evolution as a band while honouring their roots. Fans can anticipate an immersive experience, featuring a carefully curated setlist that will highlight an innovative presentation of new and old material. With the Inferno Festival's reputation for celebrating the best in the extreme music scene, we have bestowed upon DHG the honour of opening the 2025 event with extended stage time starting at 16:15. In return, DHG promises to deliver a once-in-a-lifetime performance with multiple twists and turns.

PONTE DEL DIAVOLO

Italian band Ponte del Diavolo hails from Turin and was formed after a jam session in 2020. The band combines a unique sound consisting of doom metal, black metal, and a psychedelic atmosphere.
